

Fig. 5.14. A Wavelet Tour of Signal Processing, 3rd ed. Left: curvelet frequency tiling. The dark gray area is a wedge obtained as the product of a radial window and an angular window. Right: Discrete curvelet frequency tiling. The radial and angular windows define trapezoidal wedges as shown in dark gray.